Achievements/Tasks

- Improved modal dialog components to enable popup windows to have the ability to maximize and resize for improved UI/UX
- Implemented unit tests for Angular TypeScript components, reducers, and selectors in Jasmine to ensure code quality
- Created a dynamic Page Title with NgRx (Redux) state management and ASP.NET Core for displaying the environment configuration for development and test environments
- Improved a tab component to have responsive SCSS styles to match the design specification by UI/UX designers
- Completed tasks and collaborated with Product Managers and Developers following the Scrum methodology

PROJECTS

EasyMealPlanner Web App (<https://stevengarcia.netlify.app/project/1>)

- Deployed to AWS at the domain of <https://easymealplanners.com> using S3, EC2, RDS, Elastic Beanstalk, CloudFront, and Route53
- Utilized Next.js, TypeScript, and Styled Components to create a responsive mobile-first client and managed state using Redux as the single source of truth for child component's props
- Created a RESTful API using Java, Spring Boot, Spring Security, interacted with Postgres database through Spring Data JPA, and used Docker to build an image for the API

Bug Tracker Project Management (<https://stevengarcia.netlify.app/project/2>)

- Implemented a RESTful API with C#, ASP.NET Core, and Entity Framework Core for data persistence to Microsoft SQL Server
- Developed React and Redux client with responsive CSS styles using CSS Grid, Flexbox, Media Queries, and Styled Components

Bucket List Social Network (<https://stevengarcia.netlify.app/project/3>)

- Developed REST API in Node.js and Express to retrieve data persisted in MongoDB database
- Used Redux-Thunk for asynchronous middleware calls to Node.js API to retrieve JSON data for bucket list, activity feed, and message pages
